

GIVES YOU A JOLT.

There was a young woman from Munich,
Who aspired to the style of the tunic—
But, alas, for her figure
Was not quite so rigger.
And, really, she looked like a scare-crow.

Insure with Wallace. Life, fire accident, etc. Office near depot.

Calicoes 5c yard at Pierce's

15c gingham 10c at Pierce's.

Biggest cut price sale at Pierce's.

Last Saturday was pay day at both banks.

The Filch Club was entertained by Mrs. A. M. Hughes yesterday.

The Rev. Russell Akers, of Catlettsburg, preached in Ft. Gay Sunday night.

One year ago today (Oct. 9) the weather in Louisa was clear and cool.

Charles E. Campbell, of Buckley, W. Va., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Campbell this week.

I have a few White Mountain ice cream freezers. Will sell cheap. Wm. N. Sullivan.

The Big Sandy Milling Company just received a fine supply of excellent seed wheat adapted to this section. 40c

Mrs. Dan Blankenship went to Fulkers Tuesday to attend the burial of a little child of Mr. and Mrs. William Blankenship.

Rev. Burl Akers, of Catlettsburg, preached the funeral of the infant child of D. W. Blankenship and wife, Saturday afternoon.

Pole Chapman and family have moved to Peach Orchard where Mr. Chapman has employment with the Crystal Coal Company.

Young farmers will be much interested and edified by reading the farm article in this issue of the News. It will be finished next week.

Gertrude Marie, the six months old child of Dan Blankenship, died last Friday morning after a long illness caused by stomach and bowel trouble.

Boxier Carey is quite sick at his home at Torchlight with inflammatory rheumatism. His mother, Mrs. Wm. Carey, is with him.

There will be a jolly time for all at the Lower school house on Lick creek, Oct. 17th. There will be a box supper. Everybody invited to come and bring your lady friend. Proceeds will go to cover house.

A Mr. Gardner, of Pikeville, has moved his family to Louisa that his children might get the benefit of the advantages offered by the K. N. C. He is occupying a house belonging to Mrs. McClure at the head of Main street.

Elliott Burgess, of Georges creek, had business here last Tuesday.

Russell Millinder, who sustained a badly sprained leg several days ago, is out attending to business. His escape from a broken limb or dislocated knee was quite fortunate.

The night session of the Carter county Sunday school convention held at the Methodist church was made interesting and entertaining by the able address of State field-worker W. J. Vaughan, of Louisa.—Olive Hill Times.

Dick Wilson, a Louisa boy who was married recently to a young lady of Fort Gay, and his wife have gone to Oklahoma to live. Dick is an industrious, worthy young man and his Louisa friends hope he will achieve success in his new home.

Bonds or no bonds is the question at Kenova, which is to be settled one way or the other next Saturday. The proposition is for the town to bond itself for the sum of thirty thousand dollars. The proceeds to be used in the construction of a sewer system. From what can be learned regarding the status of the question, nearly everybody in the enterprising little city favors the issue and it is predicted that "bonds" will carry by a large majority.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Castle, of Huntington, were in Louisa Saturday. Mr. Castle is a son of H. W. Castle, of Lick Creek. He is an electrician and is doing well.

FOR SALE.

Farm of about 40 acres known as the old Wadkins farm, two miles from Louisa. For particulars apply to C. V. Bartels, Louisa, Ky.

There is a lightning bug in a bottle at the head of Lock avenue serving as a street lamp, and from there to eCrutcher's residence the street is as dark as a pocket.

The new pastor of the M. E. Church, Dr. Hanaford, and his family have arrived and are comfortably domiciled in the parsonage. There will be services at the usual hour next Sunday.

Fireman Dwyer, who was so seriously injured in the Torchlight wreck on the 5th of June, was on his run last Tuesday. He still feels his hurts but is glad to be able to be on the road again.

Miss Florence Wadsworth, according to a Buffalo N. Y. paper, recently made her debut in that city as a singer in grand opera. The notices given by the press of that city are quite complimentary.

Grant Daniels a porter at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, was shot and killed by a bellboy. The shooting occurred in the crowded lobby of the hotel, and the guests were thrown into a panic when the firing began.

Ab Patterson and wife, who went to Kansas about eight years ago arrived here yesterday for a month's visit to relatives and old friends. Ab, as he is familiarly called, was one of our best citizens. His home is not far from Topeka.

Osie

The funeral of Crawford Wellman and children was largely attended, and Rev. Hulet delivered a most eloquent sermon.

The saw mill and timber job has suspended operations until it rains. Lindsey Jobe, after an absence of many months has returned home.

Mrs. Brown and children left last week for Hill, W. Va., where they will make their home.

Jerry Large, son of J. B., was here this week looking for a location.

Vesale Jobe and Eliza Elswick have returned from Piney Branch, W. Va., where they had employment.

The funeral of John Prince was preached last Sunday by Rev. Copley. The congregation was large and the meeting closed happily.

Andy Wood, and wife, of Salt, Rock W. Va., are here on a visit among friends.

George Daniels, Levi Jones and Cleveland Hicks, of Hicksville, attended church last Sunday at this place. C. C. Diamond and wife, 5 George Holly and wife of Morgan, attended the funeral of John Prince.

This is a hotbed of crime. There has not been a Sunday since April that the writer has not heard from one to a dozen shots fired. Five Winchester balls crashed through our school house door, finding lodgment in the blackboard.

On every hand we hear the cry, "We have no protection." Who's to blame?

Miss Hattie Jobe who has been so ill for a week, is much better.

Every Democrat in Twin Branch will vote for Bryan and the ticket, and the Republican vote here will be held down to 65.

Miss Jessie Hayes, of Daniels creek, is soon to visit her grand-parents at Round Bottom, W. Va.

Martha and Mary Webb, of Overda, attended church at this place Sunday.

Grover Wilks and sister passed up our creek one day last week.

Cape Dowdy of Boyd county, is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Walter Jobe.

Everybody here is anxious to hear Mr. Paynter speak.

Belvia Jobe has gone to Mahan to visit her sister, Mrs. Carrie Carter. The Prince boys are attaching a saw-rig to their grist mill and will soon be cutting lumber.

Stuart Dean has purchased a farm in Southern Missouri, paying $1,800 for it. He will remain in Kentucky a other year.

M. V. Large, the tallest man in Lawrence county, is making sorghum. Sam Jobe of Morgan went to Irad Saturday on professional business.

The small pox (itch) scare is over, but the country has yet to pay about $200 or $400.

Elia and Claudie Rosa and Leo Jobe attended Children's Day at Green Valley.

Grover Combs and wife have gone to Michigan to spend the fall and winter. J. S. T.

PERSONALS.

F. F. Freese is in Lexington.

Miss Jennette Hayes has returned to Aurora.

G. B. Carter, of Torchlight, was here Tuesday.

Rana Chaffin, of Catlettsburg, was here yesterday.

A. J. Webb, of Ollioville, was in Louisa Wednesday.

Wayne W. Cordell was in Louisa a few days this week.

Dr. W. W. Wray, of Richardson, was in Louisa Tuesday.

David Moore, of Catalpa, was a court visitor this week.

Mrs. William Justice was shopping in Cincinnati this week.

Mrs. Josephine Rice visited relatives at Torchlight Wednesday.

D. Brown, of Williamson visited Louisa friends last Saturday.

C. T. Rule, of Paintsville was a business visitor here Tuesday.

H. C. Herndon was here on revenue and other business Wednesday.

Ben Carter, of the Twins, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

The Rev. Clifton Dean, of Rove creek, was in this city Tuesday.

Alvah Drake, of Braddock, Pa., is in this section visiting relatives.

Judge Sam Burton and Lon Hulet, of Prosperity, were in Louisa Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. M. Stewart, of Ashland, visited Louisa relatives last Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Rice Beer, of Long Beach, Cal., is visiting Louisa relatives.

James Evans, one of Prosperity's best citizens, was in this city Wednesday.

S. W. Bartram, of Louisa, was a Catle City visitor today.—Catlettsburg Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Preston went to Paintsville Wednesday for a visit with relatives.

Dr. M. G. Watson was here Tuesday receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

Mrs. Jeff Riffe, of Ratcliff, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. L. Stewart, last week.

Mrs. F. C. Compton and Miss Tommie Bales, of Pikeville, were at the Brunswick Tuesday.

Ed Rice and Miss Emma Wallace came down from Paintsville and spent Sunday at Highland Home.

Lewis and A. H. Nunnally, prominent Democrats of Hulet, came up to hear the speaking yesterday.

Mr. Charles R. Nash, lately of Syracuse, N. Y., is in Louisa and will make his home with his son, G. A. Nash.

Mrs. Wayne Damron and son, Charles, left today for a visit with friends at Saltpeter, W. Va.—Catlettsburg Tribune.

After a stay of two months with Virginia friends and relatives Mrs. W. D. Pierce and daughter, Eliza, have returned to Louisa.

Mrs. Hannah Lackey, the Misses Lackey, Mrs. R. C. McClure and Miss Jean McClure went to Catlettsburg Tuesday to attend the Brown-Poage wedding.

Will Vest left today for Hubbards-town, W. Va., where he will spend a week hunting after which he will go on the Big Sandy division as news agent.—Catlettsburg Tribune.

Ex-Senator J. J. Johnson, wife and young son have now returned to Pikeville, after a stay of several months in Ashland, where Mr. Johnson was looking after business for the Northern Coal & Coke Company.—Ashland Independent.

Mica Axle Grease
Helps the Wagon up
the Hill

The load seems lighter—Wagon and team wear longer—You make more money, and have more time to make money, when wheels are greased with

Mica Axle Grease

—The longest wearing and most satisfactory lubricant in the world.

STANDARD OIL CO.

Absolutely Free.

For Ten Days only we will give FREE

A Hat With Every Suit

AT $10.00 OR MORE.

Your choice of several different styles and colors. Remember you get a Hat Free with every Suit costing $10.00 or more.

Our New Fall Styles Are In
Lowest Prices. Largest Stock.

Shoes, Hats, Clothing and Furnishing Goods.

NASH & HERR,

LOUISA,

Leading Outfitters.

KENTUCKY

Yatesville.

Mrs. Mary Gose and daughter IMes Clyde, of Norton, Va., are visiting in this section. They went to Prestonsburg Wednesday to visit the Mays, and on their return will stay for some time with relatives at Yatesville and Louisa.

Bert Shannon and Charles Berry, guard, took old Mrs. Kelley and her grandson, Alonzo Kelley, to Grayson for trial. They are charged with complicity in the arson-murder case.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the Louisa, Ky., P. O.: John Bayse, Edgar A. Bryant, Martha Castle, Henry Clark, Ebby Farler, Sadie Kelley, Ethel Markman, J. P. Miles, Malcolm Swipes, Thompson Bra., F. J. Thomas, David W. Kee, Geo. Williams Miss Belle Wroten.

A. M. Hughes, P. M.

Sorghum Wanted.

We are in the market for sorghum and will pay the highest market price.

We are in the market for sorghum DIXON MOORE & CO.,
Louisa, Ky.

Pasturage.

150 acres aftermath, 100 acres corn stover, abundant water. Terms 50 cents per week, or four dollars per head until Jan. 1, 1909, with plenty of roughage fed additional during bad weather. Jay H. Northup.

Where Real Bargains are Found.

Do not purchase what you need in the way of gents or boys clothing and furnishing goods, or men's women's and children's shoes without first seeing C. B. Bromley's line. He has a good substantial line all the way through and every purchaser gets the worth of his money—a bargain in fact. You can't afford to miss the bargains being offered at Bromley's store.

Cincinnati Markets.

Heavy steers	$4.75 to 5.75.
Butcher steers	5.25 to 5.40
Common to fair	5.00 to 5.25
Heifers, good to choice	3.35 to 4.25
Common to fair	1.25 to 3.15
Cows, good to choice	3.25 to 3.90
Common to fair	1.25 to 3.00
Stockers and feeders	2.00 to 4.50
Calves, common and large	3.00 to 6.50
Hogs, good packers	7.10 to 7.15
Fat sows	4.25 to 5.65
Light shippers	5.85 to 6.70
Sheep	1.25 to 4.00

Do you want an unparalleled bargain in a suit of Up-To-Date clothes? Read Loar & Burke's ad and learn where to get it.

ARE YOU READY FOR WINTER?

If the dresses and other garments necessary are not provided for we want you to examine our

Immense Stock of Late Dress Goods

Including the prettiest weaves and most approved shades, Silks, Satins, Serges, Crepons, Voiles, Panamas, Broadcloths, &c. Also everything that could be wanted in Dress Trimmings & Findings.

THOSE who are preparing garments for themselves or children will find our store a delightful and satisfying shopping place, because we have the articles that will be wanted and they are all conveniently arranged for inspection.
NOW would be a good time to visit the New Store for it is full of suggestions for saving money.

The Valentine-Garland-Biggs Co.

FOURTH AVENUE.

Huntington,

West Virginia.